Fashion City

A world fashion hub, Milan hosts Italy's most famous brands, and its Fashion Weeks attract thousands of visitors looking for the latest trends every year.

A Focus on Finance

One reason Bocconi is such an attractive destination for students wishing to learn more about economics, business and finance is Milan's excellent reputation for business. The city is home to Italy's stock exchange, the Borsa Italiana, in addition to several leading financial institutions.

EXPERIENCE

THE MILANESE WAY OF LIFE

Delicious Eats

Italian cuisine is well known around the world. Milan offers fine food from every area in Italy, ranging from its own saffron-laced risotto alla milanese to specialties from far-off Sicily or Sardinia. And the city is a melting pot of international cuisines, from Chinese and Indian to Ethiopian and Brazilian and many places in between.

Immersed in Culture

The city center is a showcase for Milan's history as a regional capital of the Roman Empire and Leonardo da Vinci's Renaissance home. Museums, theaters and historical churches abound throughout the city.

A Unique Lifestyle

Italy is known for bella vita, which is simply the philosophy of enjoying and savoring life. This includes appreciating fashion and design or spending time with friends and family over a good meal, even in a fast-paced city like Milan. This is also reflected in the local tradition of indulging in an aperitivo, a pre-dinner drink served with a delicious range of snacks.

Travel Around Europe

Having your home base in Milan will give you easy access to nearby beaches, hiking, biking and skiing. The city boasts excellent transport links with other major Italian and European cities, and three airports connect the city to the entire world.
