Note: Since the principal objective of the exchange program is to increase the cultural diversity of the campus, the exchange program is not open to students holding an Indian Passport.

Study program:

What majors/concentrations does your school offer at the MBA or graduate levels that are open to exchange students? Are there other departments/colleges in which exchange students may attend classes?

We offer compulsory (required) courses as electives in the following areas:

- Financial Management
- Marketing Management
- Corporate Strategy and Policy
- Human Resources Management and Organizational Behaviour
- Production and Operations Management
- Quantitative Methods and Information Systems
- Economic and Social Sciences
- NSRCEL (Entrepreneurial courses)

Note: Exchange students are allowed to take one or two courses offered by the Post Graduate Programme in Enterprise Management

Courses:

http://www.iimb.ac.in/sites/default/files/inline-files/Tentative_course_list_for_term_IV_V_and_VI_17-19batch.pdf

Courses are offered during the spring and fall terms. Courses offered vary from year to year. Course offerings depend upon the number of students opting for a course. Courses are taught in the English language only.

Note:- The final list of the courses for the new academic year will be finalized before the course bidding.

Language of Instruction

Faculties/Colleges:Language of Instruction:

All courses are taught in English only.

Language requirement	Does your school have a language requirement? If so, which test/certification is required? Yes. Proficiency in English language is compulsory. Any certified English proficiency course or a letter from the home school confirming that the medium of instruction is English.
Language courses:	Are language courses offered to exchange students? No. Language courses are not offered
Academic/Experience Requirements	Please list any academic or work experience prerequisites or recommendations or restrictions for student applicants. To do a term at IIMB, one should be currently an MBA student or equivalent in a post graduate programme. He/she should be in his/her second year of the programme and must have completed the foundation course at the home institution. Undergraduate or first year students are not eligible to participate in the exchange programme. If the student is in an integrated course of bachelor and master level programme, the student must be in his/her fifth year.
Full-time Workload:	Approximately how many courses are in a full-time load? How many credits per semester? How many contact hours per course? How many weeks do courses run? Courses are usually 3 credits each but can be 1.5 credits as well. One credit implies 10 contact hours in the classroom. Most courses will require an average of about two hours of work outside the classroom in the form of readings, assignments, projects, etc., for every hour of classroom contact. The number of credit hours taken by exchange students is determined by their school. Usually, exchange students find the program to be rigorous academically and take four or five 3-credit courses.
Learning Expectations:	What is class format? How are class participation and attendance evaluated? What are class sizes? The class format may be any one of these formats or a combination there of: Lectures, classroom discussions, case studies, individual and group projects, term papers, role plays, student projects, dissertations, business games and films. Every course will have a clear calendar of sessions and this will be made available to the students by the Post Graduate Programme (PGP) office on the first day of the term. Minimum attendance of 80 percent is required in every course. The PGP Office will keep a record of attendance in all courses. Students who do not meet the minimum attendance norm in a course will be awarded one full grade point lower than that secured by them in that course. This will be done by the PGP office and the teaching faculty concerned will be informed of the same. The size of the class depends upon the number of students opting for a particular course. But there should be a minimum of fifteen students in a particular course, if it is to be taught.
