

Number of ECTS credits : 3

Course language : English

Course leader : BERNARDIN

Emmanuelle

Faculty :

≡ COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course addresses three major knowledge areas that are important to all project managers, specifically:

1. Project structures and their impact on organization, Projects stakeholders
2. Team management and communication
3. Project costs and risks management

≡ COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the course, students should be able to:

- Assess and justify projects selection
- Understand human stake in project management
- Identify project risks and develop risk mitigation strategies
- Manage and control costs in terms of Earned Value Management

≡ LEARNING GOALS

LO01 - Analysis : Make use of critical analysis/critical thinking skills

LO03 - Analysis : Use cross-disciplinary approaches

LO05 - Action : Evaluate, prevent and manage short, medium and long-term risks

LO10 - CSR : Identify and understand stakeholder interests

LO14 - Cooperation : Work effectively in a team

≡ TACKLED CONCEPTS

This course covers some of the fundamental concepts, methods, and problems of Project team management, Stakeholders identification, project cost management, project risk management, including their interrelated dependencies.

≡ LEARNING METHODS

This course is composed of in-class sessions, supported by online sessions.

≡ ASSIGNMENTS

Students will work on business cases.

≡ BIBLIOGRAPHY

All resources required are provided on Blackboard.

Recommended readings:

“The Art and Science of Project Management”

(C) 2012 Roger D. H. Warburton and Vijay Kanabar

RW Press, Newport, RI USA.

ISBN-13: 978-0-9831788-2-8

“PMBOK”: A Guide to the Project Management Body of Knowledge, 2013

(PMBOK® Guide) Fifth Edition, Project Management Institute, Newton Square, PA.

≡ EVALUATION METHODS